

I am very much opposed to weakening Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. Indiana has a good law now and needs no changes or weakening. It is working very well. We are receiving practically no unwanted calls.